

YOU'RE INVITED!

ART PAVILION

This year the Festival is introducing a new specialty space to Petco Park called the Art Pavilion. This space serves as a vibrant canvas for students and community groups to showcase their creative works of art, infusing the STEM experience with artistic flair. In our commitment to innovation and inclusivity, we extend a heartfelt invitation to schools, students, and the community to showcase their artistic masterpieces within this vibrant space.

Join us at the San Diego Festival of Science and Engineering on March 1st from 10:00AM to 5:00PM and be captivated by the captivating artworks showcased at the Art Pavilion.

Let's celebrate innovation, diversity, and the boundless connections between STEAM disciplines together!
