

YOU'RE INVITED!
CYBERSECURITY ZONE

This space serves as an interactive hub where students and community members can explore the dynamic world of cybersecurity—uncovering the fundamentals of online safety, ethical hacking, encryption, and digital defense. We extend an open invitation to organizations, educators, and industry professionals to join us in empowering the next generation of digital defenders. Join us at the San Diego Festival of Science and Engineering on March 7th from 10:00AM to 5:00PM and become equipped for cyberspace at the Cybersecurity Zone.

Let's celebrate innovation, diversity, and the boundless connections between STEAM disciplines together!
